Show me someone who hasn't heard of suicide girls and I'll show you a liar. The lithe tattooed hipster chicks who bare their tits and tats who model for Suicide Girls are a fine erotic antidote to your run-of-the-mill peroxidized girl in a pterodactyl three-way. These are the girls who won't talk to you at B-burg bars, not the kind who'll blow you after numerous fruity drinks at a midtown club. Now the inked gamines are bringing their pouts and pasties to a theater near you. With live music and glitter, they're hitting up smaller indie venues throughout the States like Brooklyn's Southpaw, Austin's Emo's and LA's Key Club. The tour rocks on through mid-November.
